Allegations Against Adults Policy

All Saints Upton considers the safety of its children to be paramount and will take seriously any allegation made against an adult within our school community.

All adults working with children should need to be vigilant as to their own behaviour and that of their colleagues; they are advised to take care not to put themselves or children into vulnerable positions.

If anyone makes an allegation that any member of staff (including any volunteer or Governor) may have:

- Committed an offence against a child
- Placed a child at risk of significant harm
- Behaved in a way that calls into question their suitability to work with children

They must report the matter at once to the Head teacher. If an allegation is against the Head teacher, then the matter should be reported to the Chair of Governors.

The Head teacher or Chair of Governors will on such occasions discuss the content of the allegation with the Safeguarding in Education Development Officer, or if unavailable the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) and allegations against adults procedures will be followed.

(For further information see Appendix 11 in Halton Safeguarding Children Board Procedures to safeguard and promote the welfare of children).

School will adopt and work to safer recruitment practices in order to deter anyone who may be attempting to work with children in order to abuse them. However there is no alternative to ongoing vigilance and the reporting of concerns regarding the practice and behaviour of colleagues.
