

Communication and Language

Literacy

- Reading the stories Bob Man on the Moon, Whatever Next and Aliens love Underpants.
- Retelling stories using props
- Writing recounts and news
- Writing lists of items to take to the moon
- Creating character profiles
- Writing menus and food types on the specials board in the café
- Taking and writing food orders
- Using alliteration to create an alien name
- Writing speech bubbles for characters
- Labelling planets and an astronaut
- Describing the taste and texture of astronaut food
- Sharing what they know already about the topic of space

Personal, Social & Emotional Development

- Discussing and sharing our personal strengths
- Sharing our goals and wishes and thinking about how we can achieve them.
- Developing relationships with adults and peers
- Playing cooperatively and sharing
- Taking part in circle time activities and discussions
-

Spring 1

Toy Story/ Space

R.E

- Discussing the feeling of belonging to families and other groups
- Finding out about the significance of the church for Christians
- Taking part in whole school worship

Understanding the World

- Learning about the adventure of Neil Armstrong
- Watching videos of moon landings
- Retelling stories using recording devices
- Finding out about the outfits worn by astronauts
- Investigating astronaut food and comparing it to food that we eat everyday
- Naming planets and talking about some of their features
- Researching the surface of the moon
- Learning about space rockets such as Apollo 11

Mathematical Development

- Using real money within the café role-play area to pay for food
- Developing number formation
- Solving problems and using vocabulary associated with money
- Ordering numbers to 20 and beyond
- Doubling
- Addition by counting on from the smallest number to the largest number.

Expressive Arts and Design

- Role-playing in the café
- Making moon rocks
- Recreating the moon surface using crayon rubbings
- Designing and creating rockets
- Designing a superhero vegetable
- Create their own Mr/ Mrs potato head
- Design and make their own aliens using playdough, fabric and other materials
- Design their own alien underpants
- Making their own toys in the toy workshop

Physical Development

- Developing pencil control and forming letters correctly
- Learning about how to keep healthy with regards to a balanced diet and exercise
- Dressing and undressing for PE
- Travelling with care and control when using apparatus
- Travelling over, under and around equipment, balancing and climbing equipment.

